

FAMILY BUSINESS USA

Dan Frosh served as the Director of Programs and Membership at the Family Firm Institute (FFI), the oldest and most prestigious multidisciplinary professional association for family enterprise in the world. In this role, Dan oversaw the organization's worldwide membership and programmatic initiatives, including running their online certificate program aimed at training professionals to become more effective family business advisors. Through this experience, Dan gained countless insights in the family enterprise field and developed a desire to put these lessons to practical use in advising family businesses. Dan currently serves as the Managing Editor for FFI Practitioner.

Dan attended law school at Suffolk University, with a focus on estate planning, estate and gift taxation, and closely-held enterprises. Dan graduated cum laude, and received the prestigious Rehnquist Award for Excellence in Professional Responsibility. Dan has also earned the FFI Certificate in Family Business Advising (CFBA) and the Certificate in Family Wealth Advising (CFWA).
